INSTRUCTIONS FOR PARTICIPANTS
INTERSPEECH 2021 BRNO

Interspeech 2021 is organized in a hybrid format that will pose challenges both for presenters and for regular participants. Please read this document carefully to make the most of your Interspeech 2021 experience. Most of Interspeech 2021 will happen on the virtual platform.

Before the conference:

The virtual platform is pre-filled with the abstracts of papers, full papers and compulsory 3-minute “teaser” video for each paper. Authors could also upload an optional longer video and an optional PDF document. We recommend browsing these materials before Interspeech 2021 starts. They might also help you in the unfortunate case when the session with an interesting paper is scheduled for an unsuitable time in your time-zone. Please note that the optional longer video does not replace paper presentation.

During the conference:

Papers will be presented in two types of sessions:

1. Standard oral sessions with 20 minutes per paper. Oral presentations will be mostly given by presenters that could make it physically to Brno, but we will allow for oral presentations of those who needed to switch their form of participation at the last moment. Physical participants will be able to join these sessions (and ask questions) as usually in the conference center. Remote participants will be able to participate through the virtual platform, as the oral sessions will be streamed live. During the session, questions can be asked in a text-chat, or by raising hand - the session chair can then connect you audiovisually to the session. Oral sessions will be recorded and will be available in the virtual platform for later viewing, especially for those in unsuitable time-zones.

2. Unified virtual sessions are poster-like two-hour sessions for remote presenters. The format of the support is up to the presenters: they can use a poster, slides, pointing camera at a white-board, or anything else, and they will share this material during the session by screen sharing in virtual rooms. Participants will be able to visit the presentations in the virtual platform and ask questions using audiovisual connection or text chat. Presentations in unified virtual sessions are not recorded. Remote presenters have also the opportunity to present their paper outside the allocated session (for example because their usual public is in a different time zone), in an Optional Additional Virtual Presentation - in case this (these) take place, they are visible in the paper details in the virtual platform.

Please note that

- Special and challenge sessions may have a mixed format - i.e., have a common beginning in one room with live streaming (for example introduction and short paper presentations), then, the presenters split into their virtual rooms to present their papers, and they gather again in one room for a discussion or conclusions. Please always look carefully into the detailed program and in the virtual platform not to miss your “crowd”.
- Show and Tell sessions have the form of Unified virtual sessions.

IMPORTANT INFO

Please note, the virtual platform is still under construction and some other pages might not be fully developed and filled with the information. Thank you for understanding.

UNIFIED VIRTUAL SESSIONS

- All papers presented by remote participants (except those that counted on a physical presence in Brno and had to switch their form of participation at the last moment) have a unified form of poster-like presentations in virtual rooms. Participants can join the author(s) and discuss the paper using audiovisual connections.
- All such papers are listed in the list of Unified Virtual Sessions. Individual rooms can be seen under each paper and button ROOMS. Each paper can have more rooms available - the primary allocated session, and (if the presenter reserved it) an Optional Additional Virtual Presentation.
- Live paper discussion in the rooms can be seen also from the DETAILED PROGRAMME. You can enter the desired room directly once the button "Enter" is green. You can also see the number of participants in the room.
- While attending UNIFIED VIRTUAL SESSIONS rooms, please always use headphones
